The Dimmer VIEW

by Max Goodwin

When George Lenox, a local citizen, walked into my office the other day and said that he would sacrifice himself to the cause of community betterment by becoming the first resident to announce for council of Lemon Grove if the city should incorporate, he brought a happy gleam to those otherwise dim, tired, old eyes. I asked him why he was running. He summed up his reasons in a succinct manner. "Lemon Grove is in a heck of a mess and I want to see it straightened out," he stated.

Lenox is the first in what I hope will be a procession of capable leaders who will step forth and offer to pull Lemon Grove together as a self-starting, and self-controlled, self-respecting city. There are many people, some retired from important positions, who could lend inestimable aid to their community should they do as Lenox did.

Some persons, I feel, are waiting to make certain that incorporation will stand the master of the Supervisors' hearing before they announce. I personally would like to see as many as 20 or 30 residents file and run. I would also like to see every person who has been active in sponsoring an election on incorporation make themselves available to serve by filing. It seems a shame for these persons, and I'm thinking of Robert Gaudin in particular, to arouse our interest and enthusiasm, then retire to the sidelines without giving those of us on whom this enthusiasm brushed off, a chance to vote for the product they interested us in—namely, a corporate city with him on the council.

The Review would heartily endorse any of the persons who worked so hard to bring incorporation to a vote, as it would endorse George Lenox, and many other reputable citizens who may yet file for city council. In such an action, the Review accepts the responsibility implied by this endorsement. As a matter of fact, it is one of the strongest safeguards that may be applied in interest of the residents' rights and privileges. This newspaper will publicly show and prove dereliction of duty and dishonesty, if such should exist in the council of the new city. That will prevent some of the incredulous happenings that mark the history of this area.

Past events are not entirely out of focus, since the Review has been quietly gathering up information and evidence for more than a year. When the studies are complete, in a few months, this material will be laid on the desk of the district attorney. Because no one has been able to prove to me that a corporate city costs more to organize, I feel that the main objections will come from those who have, until now, had direct and easy contact with the county government. It is this same sort of group which has aided in keeping the local Chamber of Commerce emasculated, and for the same reasons. They simply didn't want a buffer between themselves and the county government.

Obviously, if these super-close relationships were entirely honorable, there could be no objection to a strong chamber, or a corporate city. What this amounts to is that some of our residents, or non residents with Lemon Grove property, have been getting themselves and the county government requests. This payoff is big when the property involved is large. That means, that as usual, it's the little home-owner who becomes the sucker. He's got to subscribe to the law to the letter, and pay a share of the other guy's advantage. Boy! Wouldn't I love to see a city council comprised of five city fathers each of whom own nothing more than a single residence. I'll bet there'd be no more of this free-and-easy sub rosa traffic in county partiality.

I say hurray for George Lenox and all his counterparts.

FIRST RUNNING CALIFORNIA SPORTS CAR CLUB ENDURANCE RACE
Only senior drivers will be permitted to compete in the six-hour race slated for Torrey Pines on Saturday, November 27, according to Joe Weissman and Ray Frug, race chairmen. The past performance of the car and the driver will determine eligibility for this major event.

This presentation of the California Sports Car Club is the first endurance race in Western United States," Weissman said, "and the 60 drivers entering will be given the chance to create road racing history in the west."

Christmas Open Hours Set by Grove Firms

While most Lemon Grove firms are starting their evening open hours in the week of December 10, a few, the variety stores in particular, are starting a week earlier.

Lemon Grove has long been recognized as a shopping area with plenty of free parking, a variety of merchandise, and competitive business people who attempt to bring you the widest variety of merchandise at the lowest possible price.

A full page announcement is being run in this week's Review listing those firms co-operating in advertising this event.

These firms are:

Walter's Jewelry, Children's Bootery, Lane's Shoes, Haulp's Drugs, Joergensen's, Patricia's, Sprouse-Reitz, Lemon Grove Rexall Drug Co., Lane's Men's Wear, Mel's, The Highlander, Lemon Grove Sporting Goods, Silver Store, Michael's, Cottage Toys, Helen Gaudin's Style Shop, C. P. Appliances, Camera Shop, Western Auto, Lemon Grove Department Store, Rella Shoes, Lowe's Toggery, Evelyn Wigton's, The Petite Shop, McManahan's.

Dr. Nicholl Named Secretary of Optometric Society
Dr. Calvin Nicholl, prominent Lemon Grove optometrist, and active in civic affairs here, changed jobs at the annual meeting of the San Diego County Optometric society at the San Diego Club.

Dr. Nicholl had just finished a term as treasurer, when the members elected him secretary for 1955.

Dr. Bernard Schommer of National City was elected president; Drs. E. E. Markowitz, and D. D. McElfresh, were elected first and second vice-president respectively, and Dr. Ann Swartz, of Coronado was named treasurer.

The Mason LINE

by Chan Mason

We had a nice visit last week with Tom Warburton, former Helix High Vice Principal. Tom is at UCLA on a year's leave of absence from Helix in order to get his doctor's degree in education. Doing fine, too.

—ML—
Tom took a couple of days off to get a Mexican hunting license which occasioned his trip from L. A. to S. D. Tom's a smart lad but he slipped a cog here. Just ask John Dail or yours truly who recently had a rather soul-shattering experience trying to do the same thing.

—ML—
All we had to do was procure a letter from our County Sheriff attesting to the fact that we weren't felons; we then had ten passport photos taken together with a birth certificate all of which we presented to a Mexican Travel Agent and received a Tourist Permit. We then had to go to the Mexican Consul with a full description of our guns and received a gun permit.

—ML—
It was now necessary for us to go to Mexico to procure our hunting license. We were shuttled back and forth between the Mexican Consul's office, Customs Bureau, Dept. of Fish and Game, Governor's Palace and the Dept. of Agriculture where we eventually gave up all our papers and in return got a little white card saying we had paid somebody 26 bucks. No, we still don't have a Mexican hunting license. Now, comes this poor innocent lad all the way from L. A. expecting to get a license in the ridiculously short span of 48 hours. Anybody want to sell a mallard?

—ML—
Anyway, we're truly thankful this Thanksgiving day for having such good neighbors to our South and if life is a bit hesitant and unhurried, so what! The older we get the more it appeals to us. Adios Amigos!

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

Red's arguments in his last article were so ridiculous that there wasn't much to answer, but Red is definitely wrong as to the following statement: "We would have crime and corruption, card games, pin ball machines, and all other vice that would bring a sporting crowd, a traffic we can well do without. We could perhaps wind up the skid row of the county."

Incorporating would insure that we would not have the things Red complains about because the City Council could enact laws specifically prohibiting card games, pinball machines, etc.

Probably some of the people have heard about the "Sunset Strip" in Los Angeles County. This is a small strip of land located near Sunset Boulevard past Hollywood, which is county territory (same as Lemon Grove) surrounded by cities and of course the only police protection they have is from the sheriff's office because the police from neighboring cities have no jurisdiction outside of their own city. Sunset Strip has been a "bone of contention" in Los Angeles for many years because of the crime and vice which has been going on there and as a matter of fact attracted many undesirable citizens, such as Mickey Cohn, who was sentenced to prison for income tax evasion.

You might say that this example is rather far-fetched but, still, it is a possibility unless we incorporate and have our own penal laws.

County ordinances must apply equally to all of the unincorporated area of the county and not to one particular area or district. In other words, the county could not ban poker parlors in Lemon Grove without making the ordinance effective in all other parts of the county.

I am glad to hear that you intend to try to present some arguments as to annexation and status quo in your next letter because I believe they can all be answered. Incidentally, Red, I understand your ghost writer quit on you but that you have acquired a new one but you should ask him to sign your letter as co-author because the material is becoming maudlin.

Is he the one who is "getting some facts in regard to incorporation versus annexation or status quo?"

I think the newest addition to the Review, Jack Woolsey, is wonderful. Don't lose him.

BUDGET FOR CORPORATE CITY TO BE GIVEN

"What Will Incorporation Cost?" The answer to that important question will be the topic of discussion Tuesday evening at the Jr. High School when Organizations United for Incorporation hold their fourth bi-weekly meeting.

This important element of incorporation will get a thorough working over, reported Robert O. Gaudin, co-chairman for O. U. for I.

"We expect to present a workable budget at that time," Forrest Baxter, the other chairman, stated.

Rev. Dan Apra, a member of the committee which is comprised of nearly every organization in Lemon Grove, said that the movie in color, which had been exhibited widely showing the filth and litter on the approaches to Lemon Grove, had helped crystallize citizens' determination that something should be done to clear up the mess.

The last day-of-the-month meeting will start at 7:30 and the public is invited.

Board of Supervisor's hearing will start the same day. The election will be in late December or early January.

SCOTT TALK TO BE HEARD FRIDAY

It may be necessary for Michael's to open an additional dining room to handle the large turnout for the Lemon Grove Men's Club-George Scott luncheon speech this Friday, it was announced by Henry Goldy, manager of the restaurant, this week. About 200 reservations, which is the capacity of the largest dining room, are on file, he said. Women will be admitted to the club in one of the rare instances when this is permitted.

Scott, president of the Walker-Scott Corporation, Southern California department store operators, will discuss the multi-million dollar shopping center he promises to develop near Lemon Grove at College and Broadway.

Scott is recognized as one of San Diego County's most accomplished speakers and his speech on the new project should be as revealing as it is interesting.

Reservations if space is available will be taken at Michael's, HO 6-9716. Luncheon, naturally, is at noon.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

We have been in Lemon Grove about a year and want to thank our many friends and patrons who have helped make it possible for us to thrive and expand. Both private individuals and business firms have been thoughtful and generous in patronizing us.

The radiator business is now firmly established and we have added a complete glass shop.

Again, we express our thanks at this Thanksgiving period.

Dear Editor:

I'm the wife of the printer you editorialized about last week. I can't say that I entirely agree with you. I don't mean to cast aspersions on a woman (Wanda Sankany) who calmly and expectantly listened to election returns on the eve of the birth of her first child but I am firmly convinced that I was in labor as I stood slip-sheeting football programs while "Pap" (the sterling printer who withstands the rigors of childbirth well) fed the press, after which I jumped into the rattly old Ford because he was using the Packard, did the grocery shopping for the week-end, prepared dinner and fed three scrappy youngsters, saw them to bed, all before announcing my request to go to the hospital... after which it took five hours.

Yet, you males want a day off for labor, Hah!

Dear Editor:
Let us pause and be thankful this year. The shooting war has ceased, and it's quiet on the Korean Front.

Lest we forget, many of our boys gave their all, that we may enjoy peace. Thousands of American fighting men are still there in the remote sectors of the true front, maintaining the vigilance. Over the miles, it's cold and lonely out there. You can help build morale at mail-call.

Healthy, happy families... a land of plenty... and our Freedom. These are the things that make Thanksgiving more joyful. All of these things are personified in the picture above. The Robert Von Willer family, 3157 Crane St., together with their four children, each of whom is possessed of a healthy, hearty appetite, pleasantly contemplates the big gobblers at Adam's Turkey Ranch, near Lemon Grove, as Thanksgiving approaches.

Piggy Wiggly Employee Quits to Buy a Motel

O. G. Bailey, associated with the Lemon Grove Piggy Wiggly Store, has quit to bring into reality a dream most salaried employees have. He is going into business for himself. Bailey has bought the Rio Vista Motel in Brawley and will take possession at the first of the year. His wife, Louise, and two boys will assist him in the project.

Your REVIEW is delivered to you a day early this week so that you may read and enjoy it over your Thanksgiving holiday.

Ordinarily the newspaper is put in the mail on Wednesday and is delivered on Thursday. The earlier delivery date gives the REVIEW staff a well earned day of rest. It will be delivered on its regular day after this week, however.

FOUR EXCLUSIONS ON DOCKET FOR INCORPORATION HEARINGS

First of the hearings on the proposed incorporation of Lemon Grove will be held Tuesday morning at the County Board of Supervisors.

So far, four petitions for exclusion have been listed. These are: Vista La Mesa Civic League, who would take all of Vista La Mesa out of the limits of the city. A similar petition was filed by Lemon Grove Vista, a neighboring community, which would do likewise.

The Security Title Company has filed for a trust, and the engineering firm of Freeland, Peterson, and Everson has filed petitions for A. F. Sonka and J. D. Roeder.

All of these petitions were filed when the announcement was made that incorporation would be voted upon. None has been filed since.

HARD PUSH AHEAD FOR GROVE'S SUCCESS DRIVE

Lemon Grove campaigners in the Second United Success Drive this week pushed ahead to 57.1 per cent of their $6,626 quota and served notice that they intend to finish strong in the home stretch.

Robert Sutton, Lemon Grove campaign chairman, said, "The real test in any drive comes in the home stretch. Never let it be said that we ran out of gas near the finish line. All we need to do is to make sure that everyone has been asked to join the Second United Success Drive."

Sutton reported the county-wide drive stood at 88.7 per cent of its $1,370,000 goal. Current percentages of quota for other associated towns were: Heartland 69.4; Southeast 9.3; South Bay 33.8; San Diego 74.6; North-east 102.8.

CHORAL SINGING CLASSES BEING FORMED IN AREA

Three choral singing classes for residents of southeastern San Diego are being formed by the City Schools Adult Education Department.

A women's chorus class will meet from 9:15 a.m. to noon and a mixed chorus class at 7 p.m., both on Tuesdays, at Lincoln High School. (Below Euclid on Imperial.) Another women's chorus group will meet at 1 p.m. Thursdays at Paradise Hills Elementary School. Child care is provided at this class. Mrs. Mona Thomas, with experience with Robert Shaw and Julius Herford in singing and directing, will be the instructor.

These classes offer a fine opportunity for fun and fellowship plus credit for high school diplomas. Participants will also have a chance to spend a day in Los Angeles (at nominal expense) next May, and sing with hundreds of other Californians at the State Parent Teachers Convention. ## THE WAY I SEE IT

(Last in a Series)

To wind up this column and its efforts to expose the unethical used-car lot salesman here are a list of do's and don'ts that should be followed to the letter in order to be assured of buying a good car from a good used-car lot.

Don't ever sign a blank and incomplete document. Don't accept promises unless they're in writing. Don't fail to get a copy of any guarantee, completely filled out. Don't ever allow yourself to be swept into confusion by an auction-shouting type salesman or high-pressure by a sly, fast talker whose words sound golden but turn to weatherbeaten rust. Don't think that all—or even most—dealers are legal thieves. Ninety five per cent of the dealers are honest. Shady practices are decreasing rapidly thanks to the efforts of the Better Business Bureau.

Do know the reputation of the dealer with whom you're dealing. When in doubt, phone the BBB. Do turn your back and leave a salesman cold if you feel he's offering "hooked bait," don't let your pride prevent your hasty exit. Do read the final papers, before signing your John Hancock. Hasty signatures may lead to trouble. Remember: If it looks like a lure, you'd better be sure. If you ever do get "taken," go to the proper authorities for help. Don't let your case simmer and die. The money you save could be your own, perhaps your neighbor's.

This may seem like a bothersome effort to go through all these procedures just to buy one used hunk of motoring steel, but in the long run you'll be all smiles. "You can fool all of the public some of the time, you can fool some of the public all of the time, but you can't fool all of the public all of the time."

(My thanks to the BBB for their kind assistance—B. T.)

BAKING DAY GIVEN IN FIRST GRADE CLASS AS PART OF EDUCATION WEEK

Last Tuesday was Baking Day for the boys and girls in Mrs. Bengston's First Grade class in Golden Avenue School. The children had invited mothers and fathers to visit their class during Education Week and they wished to serve refreshments which they themselves prepared.

The class voted to serve cookies and punch. Each child chose what he wanted to help make. Assisting the children in Tuesday's Bake Day were Mrs. Dora Stewart, Mrs. Minnie Alexander and Mrs. Dorothy Armstrong. Two ovens were loaned and the baking done right in the classroom.

On Wednesday 34 parents came to visit Room 11 to hear the children read and to see them work. After this demonstration a discussion period was held. The parents also enjoyed the children's refreshments at this time.

FIRST GRADERS ON FIELD TRIP TO ADAMS TURKEY RANCH

First grade boys and girls in Mrs. Bengston's class went to Adams Turkey Ranch recently. Here the boys and girls saw how over 5,000 turkeys were raised and cared for. They also saw how the turkeys are dressed and prepared for the market.

Upon their return to school the class ate lunch in the school Cafeteria with several parents as their guests. Guests included: Mrs. Elizabeth Brunk, Mrs. Mary Brouillette and Mrs. Helen Tuve who escorted the children with their teacher to the turkey farm. Also, Mrs. Martynsky and daughter, Mrs. Fellows, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ward, Mrs. Dorothy Armstrong, and Mrs. Farmer.

EXPANDED DISTRICT MAY RESULT FROM TUESDAY'S WATER ELECTION

The last public vote to provide a supply of water to serve "dry" areas within the La Mesa, Lemon Grove and Spring Valley Irrigation district will take place next Tuesday, but Lemon Grove voters will not be going to the polls in this special election.

The vote is on annexation of the land formerly in the El Cajon Valley Irrigation district and several other islands scattered throughout the district to the San Diego County Water Authority and the Metropolitan Water District. The annexation is necessary to qualify the lands concerned to receive water from the Colorado river.

If this vote is successful, all lands which are legally a part of the irrigation district will also be a part of the two agencies which supply Colorado river water, which constitutes a major portion of the water being delivered by the irrigation district.

It is the third step necessary in the annexation of the El Cajon Valley Irrigation district to the La Mesa, Lemon Grove and Spring Valley district, an annexation which brings acreage within the district to a new high. These annexed lands more than replace on the tax rolls of the district the Rolando area, which left the district after it annexed to the city of San Diego.

Adequate water supply to serve the new areas without depleting supplies available to other parts of the district is assured by the increased amount available since completion of the second barrel of the San Diego Aqueduct, M. J. Shelton, general manager of the district, said.

WHAT'S DOING

A $1 telephone call saves farmer $400

Gus Holman, pointing, is one farmer who really appreciates his telephone. He and his brother farm 227 acres of rice and other grains near Butte Four Corners, Calif. Not long ago, they needed a tractor fast. They couldn't find one nearby at the price they wanted to pay. So they went to their telephone. With one call, they found just what they wanted... and saved $400. Cost of the call: $1. "Our telephone pays us back a lot more in time and money saved than it costs us," says Mr. Holman. And that's the aim of telephone people everywhere—to bring you the good service you need to get things done quickly and easily... and to bring it to you at prices easy on your pocketbook. Pacific Telephone works to make your telephone a bigger value every day.

portable telephones—like having a telephone in every room

Yes, you can carry your portable extension telephone with you everywhere you go in and around the house. In the kitchen, upstairs, or even out on the patio, all you do is plug your portable telephone into a conveniently located outlet. There's just a small nominal installation charge for each outlet. And you can order as many as you want. The portable telephone itself costs no more than the charge for an ordinary extension—just pennies a day. And, with enough outlets it's like having a telephone in every room. You can order your portable telephones at your Pacific Telephone business office.

Long distance is three times faster than it was in 1945

With your help we've cut the average time in completing a long distance call to about one-third of the average 1945 time. Today, operators in about two thousand cities dial direct to millions of telephones throughout the country. That's why, when you give the operator the long distance number you want, she can complete your call much more quickly. In fact you can save an average of two minutes per call this way. Pacific Telephone.

A couple of weeks ago the Review inadvertently identified Ruby and Frank Daley, operators of the Nugget Inn, 6381 Imperial Ave., Encanto, erroneously.

Actually, Daley is well known in ice hockey circles and was blade-man for the Detroit Redwings, Cleveland Barons, St. Louis Flyers and Seattle Sea Hawks. Since he is so well known in sport circles, it caused considerable consternation when we described him as a policeman.

The couple, we hasten to explain, have operated the Inn, the cocktail bar, and an honest-to-Garcia Mexican kitchen for the past two years. Last year Helen Walker, the former chef at Coronado's Mexican Village, joined them, and since then the Nugget Inn has been the mecca for Spanish food enthusiasts.

THE SHOWS THE THING!

Tonight through Saturday the GROVE theatre has both rib-tickling comedy and action packed suspense. "The Man With a Million," starring Gregory Peck and Jane Griffiths, is another of those offbeat and thoroughly funny British comedies based on Mark Twain's "The Million Pound Note." Peck, a native San Diegoan, is supported by Jane, Ron Squire, Wilfred Hyde Smith and A. E. Matthews, and they each contribute to the movie that is full of American and British humor. The story concerns Peck as a New England mariner, stranded in London, who bets two wealthy and pitted brothers he can live for a month by flashing a million pound note, which he is forbidden to break. The companion feature is "The Diamond Wizard" and stars Dennis O'Keefe and Margaret Sheridan. Saturday's matinee for the kids is "Davy Crockett, Indian Scout" and stars George Montgomery as our two-fisted hero! Sunday, Monday and Tuesday the GROVE theater features "Private Hell 36" and "Jessie James (vs) Daltons." "Hell 36" stars Steve Cochran and Ida Lupino, while "Jessie James" features Brett King, supported by Barbara Laurence, and is in color.

Hey Kids! Smokey Rogers will present his Amateur Review this Sunday, November 28. More than $100 in awards will be given away. For further information ask at the boxoffice. If you can sing, dance or play a musical instrument, enter now!

Hollywood Glances: Everybody seems to worship Marilyn Monroe in New York. When asked if he thought Ava Gardner was sexy, Jeff Chandler replied "You ask me that! If I said yes, I'd be gilding the lily." . . . "Pink Tights" has a very interesting cast consisting of Arlene Dahl, Sherree North, Dan Dailey and Johnnie Ray.—B. T.

Read John 12:44-50

Whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak (John 12:50.)

Jesus looked upon Himself as a person through whom God, the Father, met human needs. He was gracious in His manner of meeting the physical, material, spiritual, and social needs. He became for many in past centuries, and has become for us, the Christ through whom God heals the heart.

In our doing of every task worthy of the name Christian, we are persons through whom God meets human needs. To be Christ-like we are aware of the dual aspects of our tasks. We are interested in both the material and in the spiritual. In our daily task and business, we seek to be persons through whom God can bless people.

We need to do this lovingly and humbly, so that daily we be persons through whom God may touch the heart life of others and bring to them the fullness of life in Christ.

Prayer

Dear Lord, help us today to be Christlike in meeting all types of human need. Only so will it become natural for us to say something through which Thou mayest touch the hearts of others and so meet their soul needs. For Jesus' sake. Amen.

Thought for the Day

Until we become channels of God for meeting the needs of others, our task is not complete.

Civil Defense

By CHARLES GURLEY

The Civil Defense has been changed once more, this time back to dispersal and with the farther north our radar screen is moved, the more sense such a change makes, observed Dr. Frank B. Gigliotti as he reviewed this final change in our plans.

"It has been decided by San Diego Civil Defense authorities that the destination of all the evacuees from the Lemon Grove area will be in the vicinity of Campo in the fairly nearby mountains and long before that day might come, we sincerely hope that every local family will have previously supplied itself with provisions which will permit their survival for the minimum time of one week," said Dr. Gigliotti.

"Each family should provide itself with one gallon of rice, cooked and kept in a glass jar, as many cans of fish, meat and beans as is believed necessary for a unit of two persons, canned milk may be necessary for any children and a five gallon bottle of distilled water is preferable and even this may need replacing each three months it remains unused. Remember that all food in open, or paper containers, may be contaminated and should be tested before being used," warned Dr. Gigliotti.

"We are very pleased to be able to announce that our rescue team is complete with a great amount of assistance from Fire Chief Hensley. The team is composed of firemen Clarence Scheidel, Eddie Bolieu, Bernard Grigdel, Jim Sanchez and four strictly amateur Civil Defense workers, Mark Foote, Harold Randall, Leon Plack and James Martin. We greatly appreciate the service these men are performing," said Dr. Gigliotti, "but we also need others who are local men engaged in some work which allows their daytime presence in this community in case of any daytime emergency. Any strong, muscular young man may qualify."

"The membership of this Civil Defense Rescue Squad," said Fire Chief Hensley, "will also participate in the shortly forthcoming fund drive for Muscular Dystrophy, a very crippling malady which deserves quite general public support from the usually generous Americans, who only need to be made aware of that situation to gain their sympathy."

TEN LITTLE INDIANS TO BE NEXT AT GLOBE

When Director Craig Noel began to set up publicity shots for "Ten Little Indians," baffling mystery-comedy opening Monday, November 29, at the Old Globe Theatre, he ran into an unusual problem. The play moves so quickly, the unknown murderer strikes so often, that it was difficult to pose scenes, in which all of the cast members were still alive!

Agatha Christie has written many expert, tightly-contrived mysteries, but "Ten Little Indians" probably ranks as her most famous. As "And Then There Were None," it proved a bestseller. As a play it enjoyed long runs both in London and New York. No doubt the comedy-mystery's success lies in the fact that it presents the most foolproof plan ever devised for eliminating every member of the cast of characters.

Ten guests have no sooner arrived for a pleasurable weekend on a remote island, than they dis-trap and that all are fated to die.

Since their unknown host is ab-dangerous killer may be. The only clues to the methods of murder lie in the ten little In-hospital-looking fireplace.

attraction exists here among the striking character types sharing this terrifying adventure are a

(Bernis Kennedy), a dignified judge (Fred Welch), a sports-

Larkspur in Grove Natural for Poor Soil, Sunny Area

Many home owners are plagued with soil that is neither deep nor rich nor in a good mechanical condition. New home areas are increasingly being set upon lands that are sub-marginal for agricultural purposes with the result that this problem becomes even more acute. Luckily, many fine plants are available that will make satisfactory growth under very adverse soil conditions. There are indeed a few that will do poorly if the soil is normally fertile.

For planting at this time of the year in areas of poor soil, the following plants are recommended:

Agapanthus, or Lily of the Nile; Alyssum, white, violet and saxatile; Arcotis Grandis or Hybrids mixed; Cheiranthus Alloni; Coral Bells; Coreopsis; Dusty Miller; Gaillardia; Gazania, orange, yellow, copper king, white, rose and hybrid mixed; Geum; Godetia; Hollyhock; Ice plant; Ivy, Green English and Algerian variegated; Ivy Geranium, in all colors; Lippia Grass; Marguerites; Nierembergia; Penstemon, mixed and blue gem; Scabiosa; Shasta Daisy; Statice, Caspia, Latifolia, Perziz and Sinuata; Sunflower; Sweet William; Vinca Rosea and Wallflower. For spring planting we can add Portulaca, Tithonia, Salpiglossis and the entire family of Petunias. With a little examination this list shows us almost the full range of types of plant material as it includes ground covers, border material, bedding material and background plants, items for bank planting, for pots and hanging baskets, for curb plantings, for cut flowers and for rock gardens. One item that is missing is material for shade garden areas and here poor soil must be modified for good results.

One of the less well known plants in the list above is the larkspur. This plant is often grown as a spring annual, but the best result is to be had by making a fall or winter planting as it needs ample time for full root development in order to make a good showing. As with all of the plants above, larkspur will overcome planting in poor soil but this does not eliminate the need for adequate soil preparation. No plant can be expected to push its roots down into material that is packed like cement. Addition of material such as peat moor or sand or steer manure to break up the soil will help the situation. In regions where the soil is of a good mechanical condition but is just lacking in plant food in sufficient quantity for most bedding plant material, the above list should produce satisfactory growth and color.

Larkspur is a tall growing plant and should be given ample space in which to grow. Allow at least one square foot per plant. Color ranges through blue, purple, lavender, white, pink, rose and red with all plants 100 per cent double. Usually larkspur is grown as a mixture although some growers grow some solid blue and solid pink. Larkspur is subject to mildew so watering

WOMEN NEEDED FOR POSITIONS IN STATE INSTITUTIONS

Chief duties include supervising activities of boys and girls in the California School for the Blind at Berkeley. Counselors are expected to live at the school.

Three other examinations were also announced by the board. Applications will be accepted until November 26 for instructor in janitorial services, which has a starting salary of $376 or $395, depending on qualifications, and for assistant real property appraiser, $395-$481. An examination for instructor in general shop, which also pays $376 or $495 to start, is open to application until December 17.

Your Abundant Thanksgiving Starts At MAYFAIR

Rose Mary St. Cyr, 7464 Bishop St. in Lemon Grove, likes to go shopping with Tim Caulder, aged 2, and his mother. Rose Mary is a telephone worker. Her husband, Francis, is a construction worker. "Mayfair carries the name brands I prefer," Mrs. St. Cyr said. "Name brands usually cost no more than inferior ones. To my way of thinking, buying nationally known products is the economical way to shop."

"It's the best market I know," is the succinct statement of Fern Lerwill, 4056 35th St., San Diego. "In addition to it being so complete, the help is very courteous. It's roomy and comfortable. I'm always happy when I shop at Mayfair."

Mrs. Lerwill shops for four children ranging in age from 2 to 16, plus a hungry, happy husband.

George Corbis, one of the many clerks at Mayfair, lives at 3139 Meade Ave. Through such willing personnel as George, and his counterparts, grocery items fill Mayfair shelves in proper quantities and in proper location. Their interest in their job, and your needs, is part of the chain of command, from the president to the boxboys, constantly in motion to serve your needs.

"We raise a lot of things on the ranch but it's cheaper and easier just to buy it at Mayfair," says Vera Stokes, who has a ranch in Ramona. "I like the convenience of shopping in the market, too," she said. "We come to town mostly for our Mayfair shopping visit."

We wish each and every one of our patrons, and our patrons-to-be a Happy Thanksgiving! When our Pilgrim fathers prayed for a land of plenty, in a world secure, he would have been happier if he could have had a vision of the Lemon Grove Mayfair before him.

We try to present as many good things to live with as humanly possible, at prices as low as the cost permits. Thus we hope to implement the dreams of our founders with wide variety and the security of knowing your family is getting the best quality available at the lowest price possible.

Lemon Grove business places will start staying open every night until Christmas in December.

Most of them start their open hours on December 10, but another group has chosen December 3 as the date on which they will begin remaining open.

Lemon Grove shoppers enjoy advantages not usually available to shoppers of other communities. First, sales tax is lower, while shoppers in other areas pay 4 per cent, in Lemon Grove it is 3 per cent. Obviously this saving is important when projected across the entire Christmas shopping list.

Another important feature is parking. Nowhere in the country is there so much free parking area in such a large business district as in Lemon Grove.

There's variety aplenty; competitive prices, and friendly personnel. What more could any shopper require?

Come down, bring your friends and neighbors and shop, save, and have fun.
